Data Protection: The National Federation of Occupational Pensioners will record the personal information contained in your application on computer and use it to administer your membership. The information may be used for fraud prevention or money laundering prevention. We may share your information with organisations who are our business partners. We, or they, may contact you by mail, telephone, SMS, fax or email to let you know about any goods, services or promotions which may be of interest to you. If you do not wish to receive such information please write to our Data Protection Officer, The National Federation of Occupational Pensioners, Unit 6, Imperial Court, Luton, LU4 8FE. By applying for membership you consent to our processing your personal data for the above purposes. You have a right to ask for a copy of your information (for which we charge a small fee) and to correct any inaccuracies. When you give us personal information about another person we will assume that they have appointed you to act for them and have consented to the processing of their personal data including sensitive personal data. When you join you will become a non-voting member of the company limited by guarantee. To show you have met any possible liability as a member, £1 from your first year's subscription will be allocation to the Members Guarantee Reserve. This amount is not repayable.
