Later Life Ambitions

The NFOP has been a campaign partner of Later Life Ambitions for well over a decade, but just how much do you know about LLA and it's achievements on behalf of pensioners?

LLA is all about communicating the real voices of pensioners to politicians and policy makers.

Later Life Ambitions brings together the collective voices of over a quarter of a million pensioners through the National Federation of Occupational Pensioners, the Civil Service Pensioners' Alliance, and the National Association of Retired Police Officers.

With ambitious aspirations for today's pensioner and the next generation of pensioners, LLA campaigns on a variety of issues from fair pensions to safe and sustainable care services, and from accessible housing to regular bus services to promote independence.
